

Winter Lecture Programme 2023/24

2023

- Sep 16 Excavations in Norwich, under the shadow of the city walls.
Dr Jonathan House, Pre-Construct Archaeology
- Oct 7 The Churches of Broadland: the densest grouping of churches in the Country
Dr Ian Hinton, chair of Norfolk Historic Buildings Group
- Nov 4 Atlas of the Hillforts of Britain and Ireland,
Prof Gary Lock (Emeritus Professor, Oxford University) and Prof Ian Ralston (Abercromby Emeritus Professor, Edinburgh University), (Joint lecture with the Prehistoric Society)
- Dec 2 Latest Research on the Snettisham Hoards
Dr Julia Farley (British Museum) & Dr Jody Joy (Cambridge University), (Joint lecture with NAHRG)

2024

- Jan 6 An Update on Roman Pottery
Dr Alice Lyons, President of The Study Group for Roman Pottery
- Feb 3 Recent work on the Archaeological Finds from the excavations at RAF Lakenheath
Jo Carruth, Principal Post-Excavation Manager, Cotswold Archaeology, Suffolk
- Mar 2 The Sue Margeson Memorial Lecture 2024
Reconstructing the conversion and early Christian history of East Anglia in the light of new discoveries
Prof Emeritus Katy Cubitt (UEA).

Free to members, donations requested from non-members - or join at any event.

All lectures take place at 2.15pm in the Town Close Auditorium at Norwich Castle Museum. It is not necessary to pay museum admission, please just mention that you are attending the talk.

REGISTER HERE for Zoom attendance.

Please note that you must register separately for each lecture you wish to attend.