

NNAS Summer Excursions 2026

POSTPONED – new date to follow.

Day Trip: Norfolk's Iron Age Forts, with Dr Andy Hutcheson

A self-driven excursion to three of Norfolk's Iron Age forts, Warham Camp, Bloodgate Hill and Narborough. Meeting at Warham at 10:30 am, with an opportunity for lunch in the village or at the fort.

£5 BOOK HERE

Thursday July 30th: Day Trip: Devotion, Reformation and the Beauties of Holiness in the Nar Valley with Dr Victor Morgan

A self-driven tour including Narborough church, with its rich collection of brasses and monuments, and the remains of the precinct of West Acre priory and its interesting church.

Meet at Narborough at 11:00am, finishing 4.15pm.

£10 BOOK HERE

August 1st Day Trip: Ely by train with NNAS president Heather Wallis

The medieval highlights of Ely, including a guided tour of the Cathedral and the Stained Glass Museum, and free time to visit the city museum - either joining a group on the train, or making your own travel arrangements.

Meet at Ely Cathedral 10.50am

£21.50 (Art Pass holders £15.50) BOOK HERE

August 22nd: Changes in Church design and usage from the late 13th C to the 16th C - a Study Day looking at some Churches in the Bure Valley with Brendan Chester-Kadwell.

A self-driven day, looking at churches in the Bure Valley to the north of Norwich. Corpusty and Saxthorpe in the morning, and Heydon with its splendid wall paintings in the afternoon.

Meet at St Peters Corpusty, 10.00am

£10 BOOK HERE

September 19th "For Newcomers to Norwich and Newcomers to History: the History of Norwich in Just One Walk" A free two-and-a-half hour walk with Dr Victor Margan, providing a comprehensive introduction to our Fine City

NB: This is the NNAS contribution to Heritage Open Days, and as such will be open to all. Please register as soon as booking opens to avoid disappointment.

Free BOOK HERE from August 26th

September 23rd Exhibition Visit: Medieval Churches of Norwich with Dr Clare Haynes

To celebrate the publication of the new book, a guided visit to the accompanying exhibition at Hungate Medieval Art.

Meet at St Peter Hungate, 2.30PM

Free BOOK HERE